

I am extremely concerned with the current concentration of power in media ownership and am strongly opposed to any attempt to allow further consolidation.